

CTP environnement – 200 employees, 5 subsidiaries (Singapore, Portugal, Brazil, Canada and US) and one branch in the UK – is a chemical cleaning services company (heat exchangers, boilers, heaters and the like) and a waste water treatment specialist (through its mobile treatment unit fleet).

CPT environment is performing projects in all industries (Oil & Gas, Energy from Waste, biomass, chemistry, middle market).

In line with the development of its activity, CTP environment UK is looking for:

Chemical and mechanical cleaning team leader

Tasks

You will manage small and professional teams on industrial cleaning projects. You will supervise the work on sites and will liaise with the clients to solve any problems, you will be working mostly in UK industrial sites but will also be asked to go abroad from time to time. You will report to the UK Manager based in Manchester.

- Maintain and follow-up mandatory controls / checks of the cleaning equipment in between jobs,
- Be in charge from the preparation until the good and safe achievement of all industrial cleaning work given following working procedures and using the company cleaning equipment including high Pressure water jetting machine, sand blasting and patented dry chemical spraying machine.
- Site management of own and core staff liaising with clients during the cleaning operation, reporting on regular basis to the UK Manager
- Make sure your team will always follow QHSE policy of the company and carry out safety-oriented practice.

Profile and skills

- Min 5 years' experience as a team leader / supervisor in industrial environment, ideally in Oil & Gas / power station or related industries however any previous experience in construction, welding, and mechanical industries would be considered.
- Strong communication skills as you will liaise with clients as well as staff.
- Successful experience in man-management and technical training
- Initiatives, time management as well as problem solving skills will be key to this role
- Hard worker, reliability and great ability to travel nationwide (and overseas from time to time) will be key to this role – overseas missions will be typically 1 to 3 weeks.
- Very friendly and open-minded as you will perform your work into various multicultural environment
- Clean driving licence

Salary and benefit

- Fixed salary for stand by time
- Basic between £15 and extra bonus when working abroad.
- Contract type: full time.
- Overtime and night shift allowance.
- Company van and mobile.

You can send your application folder (CV + application letter) to : contact.uk@ctp-environment.com